People Services
Wokingham Borough Council,
Shute End,
Wokingham,
Berkshire,
RG40 1BN

Operating areas are throughout the Wokingham borough.

What is the lawful basis for processing the information?

The lawful basis for processing your information is for the performance of a public task and is necessary for compliance with a legal obligation, as specified by the following legislation below. Where there is no statutory duty or power, such as an electronic newsletter, then processing will be by you providing consent to join and use the service.

- Care Act 2014
- Childrens Act 2006
- Childrens Act 2016
- Childrens and Families Act 2014
- SEND Code of Practice (Childrens Act)

How do we collect information from you?

Information is collected from you as the service user via online web forms, hard copy documents, e-mail, by telephone or through face-to-face discussion. This information will be collected from either you directly as the data subject, or from a representative acting on your behalf, e.g. a parent providing details for a child to be signed up to the service.

What type of information is collected from you?

The service collects and processes a range of information about you. The information is provided to enable the 0-25 SEND Service to carry out its duty and functions, provide you with a service, and continue to make service improvements. We will only collect information from you that is necessary for us to perform our duty and provide safe quality services.

We will collect the following information: Surname, Forename, Surname of child, Forename of child, Date of Birth, Address, Postcode, E-mail, and Phone number.

You will be informed of any other data we collect, that is not listed above, orally or through email at the time of collection of the data.

How do we use the information you have provided?

All information provided is used by Wokingham Borough Council for the purposes of:

- Adding you to the disability register (for up to 25 year olds)
- Provide specific information for assessment purposes, such as child and family assessments
- Used for the assessment for an Education, Health and Care Plan (EHCP)
- Used for assessment of safety or a disabled child's needs
- Assessment and provision of support with regard to meeting the needs of an autistic child or young person
- Assessment and provision of support around specific issues such as sleep, behaviour, personal care or provision of short break services
- Care planning to provide care
- Issuing you with a CAN card
- Provide information on local services and activities
- Notifications of workshops, parent or carer information and information surrounding disability
- assess performance, set targets and improve services
- Invite you to participate in consultations

Who has access to the information about you?

Your information is managed by staff employed in the 0-25 SEND Service. Your information may also be shared with officers in People Services for assistance with these matters. Special Educational Needs (SEN), Disabled Children Social Work, Occupational Therapy & Early Support service, Family Intervention, Resource and Support Team (FIRST), Bridges Resource Centre (Including Saturday Club, Outreach & Family Based short breaks), Children with Additional Needs (CAN) network and Autism Spectrum Service for Information, Support and Training (ASSIST). All personal data is stored securely; we have in place security measures, which are intended to ensure, as far as possible, the security and integrity of all personally identifiable information.

Your data is stored securely on our systems and accessed only by authorised officers of Wokingham Borough Council by using their own Username and Password all created in-line with pre-defined user credentials. Personal data is also held in electronic files on the Councils network drives. These are only accessible through personal logon credentials and access privileges to specific drives.

Unfortunately, the transmission of information via the internet is not completely secure. Although we will do our best to protect your personal data, we cannot guarantee the security of your data transmitted to our sites, any transmission is at your own risk. Once we have received your information, we will use strict procedures and security features to try to prevent unauthorised access, and any exchanges of information carried out once we are in receipt of your data will be done securely.

Any personal data held in paper format is held in lockable filing storage, and accessed only by authorised officers, as is data held on audio or CD/DVD media. Data may be stored in paper form and is always secured in lockable cabinets when not in use. Access to Council sites is also secure requiring a personal electronic pass (lanyard) to access staff only areas.

Who we may share your information with?

When contacting the 0-25 SEND Services, your information will be shared with other Council staff to the extent required to provide you with the service you have requested. Your information may also be shared with statutory bodies for the purposes of inspection, including Ofsted, The Care Quality Commission, Her Majesty's Inspectorate of Constabulary and Her Majesty's Inspectorate of Probation.

There may be other organisations not named on the above list, to which we may refer you to, we will always inform you about the referral and the information shared with that organisation.

Where the Council engages third parties to process personal data on its behalf, they do so on the basis of written instructions, are under a duty of confidentiality, and are obliged to implement appropriate technical and organisational measures to ensure the security of data.

To ensure that information is continued to be held securely and that accuracy is maintained, there will also be instances where our system suppliers will need to access individuals personal information. This will be on a strict need to know basis and all contracts have confidentiality clauses built in.

The Council will not transfer your information to countries outside the European Economic Area (EEA) unless this is necessary, and only to countries which have sufficient safeguards in place to protect information.

Information will be shared internally if required for better performance and efficiency of Council services and the welfare of individuals.

Wokingham Borough Council may also share personal information with the police and other local authorities under Article 23 of the General Data Protection Regulations in order to prevent or detect crime.

How long do we store your information?

The duration that the Council will hold information, and what happens at the end of that period, are as described within the Councils corporate retention schedule available on our website: www.wokingham.gov.uk/council-and-meetings/information-and-data-protection/privacy-statement

Does the service utilise automated decision-making?

The 0-25 SEND service does not utilise automated decision-making in the services that it provides.
