* This school has been offered as a divert school for children who did not receive an offer at any preferred school(s) on their Application Form. This school was determined to be the designated area school or the most accessible school with places to the child/children. All parental preferences for the school were met before the divert applications were allocated.

 Own admission authority schools who commission Wokingham Borough Council to rank applications against the school's criteria on behalf of the school.

 This is a through-school. 30 children attending The Piggott (Primary Base) will move to The Piggott (Secondary base) from September. 222 places are available for allocation as part of the admissions process.

* This school agreed to take additional students to meet the demand for places within the Borough
