* This school has been offered as a divert school for children who did not receive an offer at any preferred school(s) on their Application Form. This school was determined to be the designated area school or the most accessible school with places to the child/children. All parental preferences for the school were met before the divert applications were allocated.

** Own admission authority schools who rank their applications against the school's criteria

*** This is a through-school. 30 children attending The Piggott (Primary Base) will move to The Piggott (Secondary base) from September. 225 places are available for allocation as part of the admissions process.

**** This school agreed to take additional students to meet the demand for places within the Borough

Please refer to the Parent's Guide to starting Secondary School for more information about how places are allocated.
