Safeguarding statement

We take our safeguarding responsibilities very seriously, and we work hard to make sure our school has effective safeguarding systems in place. We expect everyone working in the school to share a common objective to help keep children and young people safe by contributing to:

- providing a safe environment for children and young people to learn in
- identifying children and young people who are likely to suffer significant harm and taking appropriate action with the aim of making sure they are kept safe both at home and in the education setting.

Main Tasks/Accountabilities

This is not intended to be an exhaustive or definitive list, you may be required to carry out other duties as required:

1. To model and promote the values, ethos, vision and policies of the school ensuring the pursuit of high standards for all pupils including those with additional needs.
2. To uphold public trust in the profession and maintain high standards of ethics and professional behaviour.
3. To plan and teach well-structured lessons to assigned classes, following the school's plans, curriculum and schemes of work.
4. To assess, monitor, record and report on the learning needs, progress and achievements of assigned pupils, making accurate and productive use of assessment.
5. To adapt teaching to respond to the strengths and needs of pupils and in so doing to promote good progress and outcomes by all pupils.
6. To set high expectations which inspire, motivate and challenge pupils
7. To maintain good order and discipline among pupils, managing behaviour effectively in line with agreed policy and approaches, to ensure a safe and happy learning environment.
8. To direct and supervise support staff assigned to your classes and pupils.
9. To help every child, including those considered to have SEND, to achieve high levels of independence, self-esteem, emotional and social skills, self-discipline, and a positive self-image as a learner.
10. To write and review individual provision plans (IPP) for pupils on the SEND register, in consultation with the Inclusion Leader and outside agencies as appropriate, planning the curriculum for such pupils to reflect the IPP provision.
11. To work in partnership with parents including communicating regularly with them about their child's learning and other needs, supporting them to contribute to their child's learning, leading workshops (as and when appropriate) and drafting written communication including letters and annual reports.
12. To contribute to the development, implementation and evaluation of the school's curriculum, school improvement plan and policies as a subject leader.
13. To participate in the annual performance management cycle, in regular planning and professional meetings, in INSET Days, and in external training programmes in line with the CPD Policy.
14. To make a positive contribution to the wider life and ethos of the school; for example, attending school educational trips (including residentials) and special occasions, PTA events and other events (as and when appropriate) in the school's annual calendar.
